The body of the supposed atheist who committed suicide by taking cyanide of ptaceium at the Hotel Montgomery in Jersey City on Saturday was not identified yesterday. A soiled pink outing shirt and a soiled turned-down 16%-inch collar were found in a bureau drawer in his room, and these bore the laundry marks. "Hogan" and "K., 1999." The officials believe that they may be able to trace the man's identity through these marks.
